

HOME HAPPENINGS

—A $1000 War Savings Stamp Club of ten members is being organized by M. H. Liddle.

—Keep in mind the entertainment to be given by the Vivo Club Friday evening, Feb. 22, for the benefit of the Red Cross.

—Electric lights are being installed in many Canfield homes and electricity will be the light generally used within a few months.

—A considerable number of Smiley books have been sold by the local committee. If you have not yet purchased yours better get busy.

—The Canfield grammar school basketball five defeated Boardman grammar school team at Boardman last Friday night by a score of 25 to 13.

—While Herbert Pricer was cranking an automobile last Friday night the engine back fired and Mr. Pricer had his right arm broken above the wrist.

—Robins made their appearance here Monday and C. L. Manchester of Ellsworth township telephoned that the first robin in his neighborhood was spied early Tuesday morning.

—Moisture congealing in the gas mains has been causing the Canfield Gas & Electric Co. a world of trouble the past week or two. It is now believed the trouble has been overcome.

—After a short meeting of Dublin grange next Tuesday evening a farewell reception will be tendered A. B. Williamson and family who leave shortly for their new home in Quincy, Ill.

—It is expected that before many days another train of Liberty trucks in charge of soldiers will pass through Canfield from Michigan factories to the Atlantic seaboard for shipment to France.

—The mixed passenger, mail, express and freight train on the Niles & Leavenworth branch of the Erie continues to be erratic in its movements, seemingly without the slightest regard for its schedule.

—Guy Metcalf died suddenly last Friday at West Palm Beach, Fla., aged about 45. Deceased was a son of W. P. Metcalf, formerly of Mineral Ridge, and among the early graduates of the N. E. O. N. C.

—Union revival meetings will be held in the Canfield churches, beginning Sunday, March 10, and continuing three weeks, ending Easter Sunday, March 31. Time and places of meeting will be announced later.

—It was feared that the red birds that have wintered in Canfield for several years had been frozen during the intensely cold weather but at least one pair survived, having been in evidence about town for several days.

—Hundreds of Thrift Stamps are being purchased by children living in Canfield and vicinity. More than that they appreciate they are helping Uncle Sam finance the great war and at the same time acquiring the saving habit.

—To conserve fuel union meetings are held in one of the village churches Sunday evenings. The meeting next Sunday night will be held in the Methodist church and Rev. J. C. Richards, pastor of the Christian church, will preach.

—The W. P. M. S. of the Presbyterian church will hold the annual meeting and praise service in the church parlors, Wednesday, Feb. 20, at 2:30 p. m. Rev. W. P. Hollister will address the meeting and a free will offering will be taken.

—Hundreds of automobiles of one kind and another have passed through the village the past week in drive-aways from Michigan and Ohio factories to New York, Philadelphia, Boston, in fact, all eastern cities. Some of the machines were for export.

—Services at Zion Reformed church will be conducted next Sunday morning by E. W. Moyer, supply at Paradise church, and a student at Central Theological seminary at Dayton, O. Rev. J. M. Kendig, in exchange, will conduct services at Paradise church.

—There is every evidence that the farmers in this section having sugar camps will operate this season as never before. The need of sugar and the high price maple syrup is certain to command are incentives to the greatest effort possible in production.

—The Willing Workers War Savings Society will meet on Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. M. H. Liddle. Those members who are unable to attend are requested to report to the secretary, Mrs. C. C. Fowler, the amount invested in War Savings and Thrift Stamps.

—Members of the board of county fair managers met in Canfield Monday and revised the program of the fair. Many changes were made, a considerable sum being added to several classes. In all the racing classes the purse will be $400 which is believed will attract a larger number of horses than ever before.

—An item printed in the Dispatch some weeks since regarding unparliamentary remarks has been construed by some people to refer to a young woman, which we much regret to say was not the case. The person in question and her people have given every evidence through Red Cross and other work that they are among the most patriotic in this community.

—Ground unprotected by snow is said to be frozen to a depth of more than four feet. In the village cemetery, covered by more than a foot of snow during the coldest weather of season F. L. Rice reports the ground frozen to a depth of only six or eight inches. Wheat fields have no doubt been saved by the heavy coat of snow that covered them for weeks.

—A large number of members of Dublin grange went to Greenford Tuesday night to witness the conferring of the first and second degrees by Dublin degree club on eleven candidates. The work of the degree team directed by W. A. Chubb was highly complimented by all who witnessed it. Greenford and Dublin granges are among the largest and most progressive in the county.

—Mrs. Elizabeth Alderfer of Clarkston, Columbiana county, is here visiting her granddaughter, Mrs. E. E. Christman, on North Broad street. Mrs. Alderfer is nearly 90 years of age and very active, being able to go up and down stairs as quickly as people much younger and perform many household duties. Since Christmas along with other work she has knit five pairs of socks for soldiers. She recalls many incidents of the civil war, being there in middle life, of which she talks very interestingly.

—Zero weather has disappeared and it is hoped that it will not return for many months.

—Evidence that spring is approaching was the flying of a kite over the village Tuesday afternoon.

—Mild weather and some rain carried away the snow this week and no flood resulted in this locality.

—Fuelless Mondays have been called off by Dr. Garfield and industrial establishments will again resume normal operating schedules.

—The estate of the late J. H. Warlick of Canfield is appraised at $13,000 and his widow, Henrietta G. Warlick has been appointed executrix.

—The Canfield Gas & Electric Co. had the gas well on the Manchester farm shot on Monday and after it is cleaned out the flow of gas will be much stronger.

—A service flag with four stars has been placed in the Masonic lodge room. Members in the army are Wilbur Heiser, McKinley Skelton, Seth Paulin and Allen Prickinger.

—During the month of January J. W. Ockerman, carrier on rural route No. 1 out of Canfield, handled 7,753 pieces of mail matter and John Sauerwein, carrier on route No. 2, handled 7,445 pieces.

—About 100 young men in draft district No. 4 have been summoned for medical examination in Youngstown the first of next week. Those who pass will form the last contingent of the first draft and will be sent to training camps within a short time.

—A meeting will be held in town hall next Tuesday evening, Feb. 19, for the purpose of organizing a Men's War Savings Society. Every man in Canfield and vicinity is urged to attend this meeting and invited to join this society which is a systematic way of saving and helping finance the war by lending your money to the government.

DR. SAWVEL WRITES INTERESTING LETTER

Hornell, N. Y., Feb. 5, 1918.

Dear Mr. Fowler:—I was glad to get the new Dispatch and to read friend Dr. Campbell's wood-chopping stunt at the seashore. It first struck me as an extravagance, if that is the right word for a fellow friend to be so wasteful as to literally throw away and out-of-doors the degrees of good, marketable heat and comfort which his less favored friends up here are doing their utmost with hot jacks, waterbags, fomentations, soap and salt and the government allowance of coal and electricity to keep from as literally suffocating.

It has been below zero every morning since our arrival, Jan. 17, and whether something went wrong with the existing machinery of the thermometer or it was just a hint "to the proverbial earth pig to 'lay low', I have not heard, but the mercury shot in the second of February down a point 20 degrees below zero, kept the sun shining all day and this morning beat that record by two points.

George Hornell once owned the tract on which the town started and attached his name to the place as Hornellville. Hornell is in a good county, a county remarkable for having three court houses and one jail, though the Buffalo Express insists that it would be better to have three jails and one courthouse.

The town has a population of about 15,000, engaged chiefly in railroad and the manufacture of silk goods, gloves, hosiery and light fabrics, each of its five silk mills making a different article. It is the terminus of the Shawmut railroad and the Buffalo division of the Erie connects with the main line here and it is the location of large repair shops of the several lines.

Besides, it furnishes the site of an ancient fine forest in full view from the Steuben Sanitarium which is perched on a shelf thirty acres in extent several hundred feet up on the opposite or western foothills. By the way, this sanitarium is a model institution in many respects, summer-like temperature, home-like atmosphere, good treatment and medical attention within its cold-proof eighteen-inch brick walls. From the forest that once grew on the site timbers were cut and boats built in which the generous Col. Butler and Brandt, the famous Indian chief, embarked nearby with their army on the June flood of the Conistota river a hundred and forty years ago on their way to the savage, heartless butchery of the Wyoming massacre.

The town has one more distinction. One of the five dog cemeteries in the United States is here in the edge of a fine grove of forest west of the sanitarium and across the highway that skirts the city cemetery. It was started by Frank Myers of the town in November, 1907. He had a favorite St. Bernard and when doggie sickened and died it was buried by its master under the trees and a marble slab four feet high by twenty inches wide was set up over the grave. The result is that from near and far have been brought pets and poodles, "Topsy", "Sis", "Bibs", "Tinker Jake", "Murphy", "Tam" and "Fritz", "Coco" and "Judge", "Fido" and "Pussy" 1891-1910, and so on till more than seventy markers, mostly marble, two of granite, may be counted. Four have sculptured lambs on the top, several have dogs. Some have "At Rest" and others have flower or wreath decoration.

A novel sight is and a troublesome query clogs my pen point, "Would a faithful maid or 'handy' boy or man in each case, be remembered so kindly and humanely?" Very truly yours, F. B. SAWVEL.

TEST ALL SEED CORN
County Agent H. A. Lehman has sent the following notice to all granges in the county:
We wish to call your attention to the seed corn situation, as it is most serious. Out of 107 tests from 80 counties only 36 samples gave better than 50 per cent germination, many as low as 5 or 6 per cent. These were samples of seed corn. What must be the condition of shock or crib corn be? It is still time to examine with preliminary tests and if your corn shows that 50 per cent or more will grow you can then conduct the single ear tests in order to insure yourself a supply of seed. It is more important this year than usual that we have good seed for with our shortage of labor, we cannot afford to lose any time at the planting season and besides the price insures you adequate returns. If anyone in your grange has any old or stunted corn that will grow, please notify the county agent.

ME UND GOTT
Mine Gott, will you be mine partner? You don't know who I am; I am the German kaiser, The emperor Wil-I-am.

You know I whipped the Belgians, Und mit bullets filled Russia full; And I'll whip both France and Italy And blow up Johnny Bull.

Now for all dem other nations I don't give a damn; If you will be mine partner I'll whip Uncle Sam.

You know I got dem submarines— All Europe knows dot well; But Edison got a patent now Vor blows dem all to hell.

Now, Gott, if you will do die, Den you I'll always love, And I'll be emperor of the earth, And you emperor above.

But, Gott if you refuse me die, Tomorrow night at eleven I'll call all mine Zeppelins out Und declare war on heaven.

I wouldn't ask die you, Gott, But it can be plainly seen, Dot when Edison pushes dot button To hell mit mine submarines. —Illinois Exchange.

AN OPPORTUNITY FOR TRACTOR OWNERS

International Harvester Company Will Hold Tractor Schools.

Of all the machines a farmer owns, none is more important than his tractor. Especially is this true this year. Tractors must be in condition to work day and night if necessary to make possible the increased production of food we need. There must be no delays due to unsatisfactory operation, no loss from misunderstanding.

To this end the International Harvester Company of America proposes to hold Tractor Schools in various parts of the country in order that their users may get the best possible service out of their tractors.

One of the Schools will be held at Macabee Hall on Park Avenue, Warren, Ohio, Feb. 19th, 20th and 21st.

This school will be absolutely free to all who care to attend, whether they are tractor owners or not. Nothing will be offered for sale at these schools and there will be no selling talks. A course of instruction on how a tractor works and how to keep it working will be strictly adhered to.

The instructors are practical tractor and engine men and the course is laid out on large charts illustrated with clear diagrams and described in simple terms. It takes up the reasons why an engine operates, what takes place within the cylinder of an engine, symptoms that indicate approaching trouble, how to look for trouble and not overlook it, how to get the best possible service from a tractor or engine, new uses for tractors and many other subjects of special interest to men in this locality.

Those who attend the school will be encouraged to ask questions on any subject in connection with tractors and engines. These questions will be answered at the end of each school session. There will be demonstrations with engines and tractors themselves.

To be sure that everyone who attends this school carries home with him every point brought out there, a book containing all subjects discussed at the school will be given to every man. Every farmer who owns a tractor or engine should attend this school, but more important still he should bring with him the man who operates his tractor. Plan now to be present at every session of the school, for the men who do this will get the greatest benefit out of it.

Don't forget the date, and be sure to be there.—adv.

SMILEAGE BOOKS ARE CAMP THEATRE PASSES

Send One to a Soldier in Camp

In the thirty-two big National Army and National Guard Camps large theatres and tents have been put up in which theatrical companies will give regular shows, such as "Turn to the Right", "Inside the Lines", and "Cheating Cheaters". Real vaudeville from Keith's circuit by special companies, who will play only at the camps; the best concerts, movies and lectures will also be given. All this is being done under the direction of the War Department Commission on Training Camp Activities.

Smileage Book coupons will admit the soldier free to these entertainments. It's up to you to buy him his ticket.

Smileage Books Come in Two Sizes
One contains twenty 5-cent coupons and costs $1.
The other size contains one hundred 5-cent coupons and costs $5.

The cost of admission to these shows varies from two coupons to five coupons, depending on the cost of producing the show. It will never be over five coupons.

The accounts are audited by men from the War Department.

Smileage books may be obtained locally from any of the following committee: S. A. Arnold, P. A. Morris, D. B. Fowler, J. W. Baird, Miss Edna Jones, A. S. Andrews, James B. Jones or any Boy Scout.

Get your supply at once as the campaign closes Tuesday, Feb. 19.

OUT FOR COUNTY CLERK

To my Friends and the Public:
I have decided to be a candidate for the office of Clerk of Courts of Mahoning County, subject to the decision of the Republican Primaries to be held on August 13th, 1918.

Seven years' experience as Commissioner's Clerk has given me a valuable education in handling County affairs, and if you believe in the promotion of experienced and efficient employees, and if my past record at a County employe has met with your approval, I earnestly solicit your support.

Very truly yours,
FRANK H. VOGAN.

SHORT CUTS IN NEEDLEWORK

Suggestions That Will Save a Few Minutes' Time Are Most Welcome in These Busy Days.

Time is way above par nowadays. Everybody is busy. No one has time to devote to fine stitches if big stitches will do. Hence any suggestion which will save a few minutes by the clock are welcome. What about these?

If you need a casing for the top of a camisole or nightgown or kiddie's frock in a hurry, try making a wide cat-stitch on the outside of the garment with a heavy silk or mercerized cotton. You can run a ribbon or tape through this and make it decorative, as well as useful, in a much shorter time than stitching on the usual bias facing. There is another way, too, of crocheting a row of open fillet mesh and sewing it on. This takes a little longer but wears well for wash clothes.

White-bone knitting needles slip through the wool much quicker if they are first filed on a plain kitchen file, as you would a lead pencil, into a long smooth point.

In hemming towels or table linen don't stop to make knots. They are unsightly, anyway. Just run the stitches for the first half-inch very small with a back stitch or two, and do the same at the end of a thread. With the new thread begin over the last few stitches in the same way and you will never need a knot.

A loose feather stitch for sewing tucks into dresses for growing girls is much better than either hand embroidery or machine stitching. It wears well, takes but a short time and does not show the marks of the stitches when removed.

Don't pin patterns if you are in a hurry; you are sure to pin crookedly. Use weights of books, heavy desk articles or small bags filled with sand for the purpose. They hold as well as pins and are a much simpler proposition.

IMPART AIR OF SPRINGTIME

Silk Floss Flowers on the Side of Narrow Collar of Girls' Suits Look Like Fresh Nosegays.

Two advance models for misses have a novel embroidered touch which lends them a distinct springtime atmosphere. Silk floss flowers in natural coloring embellish the right side of youthful narrow shawl collars, looking as though fresh nosegays had been tucked in, says Women's Wear.

A small pink carnation with foliage is very chic on an Eton suit of navy tricotine, which may also be worn as a dress. Black satin folds are used to define the tailored shapeliness of collar and cuffs whose curves match, as well as a horizontal barlike panel which offsets the double-breasted closing. Two flying panels, one piece above shoulder blades, give an unusual back to this Eton, for the ends of each are finished with cord fringe.

There is a one-sided tunic on the narrow skirt which completes this model. The other, a nobby suit of navy Polart twill, has a bluet embroidered on it, tracings of silver thread simply marking the shadows cast by the blending shades of floss.

Oblong inset panels on the narrow belt and others of larger dimensions arranged halfway between skirt section and bodice at center back and one at either side front on the skirt section itself to serve as pockets, are other features that are "different."

The New Bedtime Bow.

Decorative headresses for night wear are reported from London as having taken the place of boudoir caps. They are known as bedtime bows.
